How Australia moves

Five decades of public transport across Australia's capital cities

Section 1 - Where Australia moves: Which cities use public transport the most, and does the ranking change when population is considered

1. Proportional Symbol Map - Total Patronage (2024-25)

Encoding:
Position: city location
Size: Total trips
Colour
Key Takeaway:..

2. Horizontal Bar chart: Total patronage by city (2024-25)

Encodings:
Y: city
X: total trips
Sort: descending

Total passenger trips Key takeaway:..

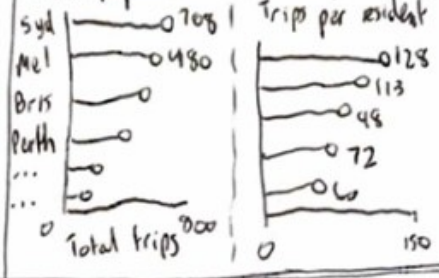

3. Choropleth Map - Trips per resident (2024-25)

Trips per resident
0 130

Encoding: Trips per resident
Colour:
Geoshape: Aus capital city regions
Key Takeaway:....

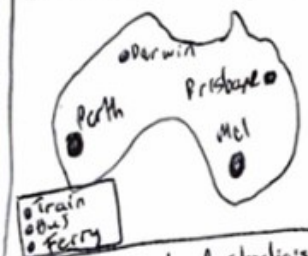

4. Lollipop Chart - Total trips vs trips per resident

Encoding:
Y: city
X: value
Hover → exact values
Key Takeaway...

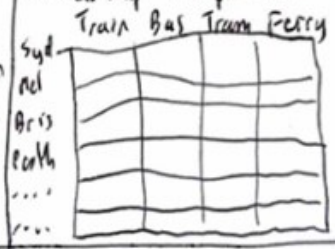

Section 2 - Every city moves differently: How do trains/buses/ferries shape each capital city?

5. Dominant mode map - Which mode dominates

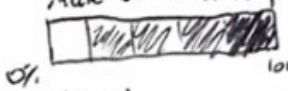

Encodings:
Position: city location
Colour: dominant mode
Size: Fixed

6. Heatmap - Transport mode share by city

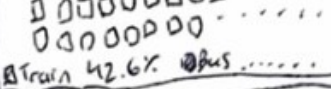

Share of total trips

Encodings:
X: mode
Y: city
Colour: share of total

7. Waffle Chart - Australia's Public Transport Mode Share

Encodings:
Each square: 1%
Colour: transport mode

Section 3 - Five decades on the move: How has public transport usage changed since 1976-77?

8. Interactive Overview + Detail line chart

Encoding:
x: Financial year
Y: total trips
Colour: city

9. Bump chart - City ranking overtime

Encoding:
X: year
Y: rank
Colour: city

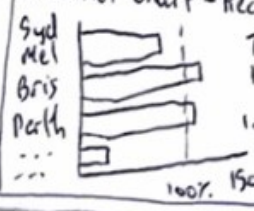

Section 4 - The COVID shock and recovery: How severe was the disruption, and which cities have recovered

10. Waterfall chart - National Patronage Change

Encodings:
X: year / period
Y: change in trips
Colour: +/-

11. Bullet chart - Recovery vs 2018-19 (by city)

Encodings:
X: recovery index
Y: city
ref line: 100%

Conclusion - One country, Eight transport stories

metadata

Data sources
Author, date